

Date:03/08/2024LETTER OF RECOMMENDATION

I am writing to recommend Kesha Dharmesh Shah, who has recently completed a Bachelor's degree in Computer Engineering at Neotech Institute of Technology. I have known Kesha Dharmesh Shah as her Professor Mr. Sohil Shah and have seen her grow into a skilled and dedicated engineer.

During her studies, Kesha Dharmesh Shah performed very well in all her courses. She particularly excelled in subjects related to her field, showing a strong understanding of the material. Kesha Dharmesh Shah consistently achieved good grades in her class.

Kesha Dharmesh Shah also worked on some projects, where she demonstrated great problem-solving skills and teamwork. She was able to take on challenges and find solutions that impressed both her peers and instructors.

I am confident that Kesha Dharmesh Shah will do very well in any future studies or work she pursue. She has my full support and highest recommendation.
